PART – II
PROCEDURE OF THE CABINET

20. (1)(a) Cases specified in the First Schedule to these Rules shall be brought before the Cabinet after submission to the Minister-in charge of the Department.

(b) Cases other than those specified in the First Schedule to these Rules shall be brought before the Cabinet by the direction of-

(i) the Chief Minister, or

(ii) the Minister-in-charge of the Department with the consent of the Chief Minister:

Provided that no case in regard to which the Finance Department is required to be consulted under Rule 17, shall, save in exceptional circumstances under the direction of the Chief Minister, be discussed by the cabinet unless the Finance Minister has had an opportunity to consider it.

(2) Any case which the Governor may require to be submitted for consideration of the Council under Article 167 (c) of the Constitution shall be brought before the Council under the direction of the Chief Minister. The provisions of these Rules shall mutatis mutandis be applicable in respect of the procedure of the Council.

21. Subject to the provisions of Rule 20, all cases specified in the First Schedule to these Rules shall be brought before the Cabinet.

¹["Provided that where a proposal relating to an externally aided project involving fifty crores and above is already approved by the Cabinet any proposal regarding implementation of such project need not be brought before the Cabinet but shall be placed before an empowered committee constituted by any general or special order with the prior approval of the Cabinet, consisting of such persons and with such powers and functions as may be specified in such order."]

22. The Chief Secretary, or in his absence, such other officer as the Chief Minister may appoint in this behalf shall be the Secretary to the Cabinet.

23.(1) While submitting a case for being laid before the Cabinet, the Department to which the case belongs should prepare and forward a Memorandum setting out with sufficient precision, the points in the case which require decision to the Secretary to the Cabinet, through the Chief Secretary and the Minister-in-charge of the Department.

In particular, the Memorandum shall state concisely:

(i) In case which concerns more than one Department, the joint recommendations of the Ministers or points of differences between them, with the recommendations of each of the Ministers concerned.

(ii) If it has not been possible to consult any concerned Department, the reason therefor.

(iii) Advice, if any, tendered by the ¹[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation.] under these rules.

(2) When the subject of the case concerns more than one Department, the case shall not be submitted for being laid before the Cabinet until it has been considered by the Departments concerned, unless the case is one of extreme urgency.

24. (1) The Chief Minister may direct that any case referred to in Rule 21 may, instead of being brought up for discussion at a meeting of the Cabinet, be circulated to the Cabinet Minister for opinion and if all the Ministers are unanimous and the Chief Minister thinks that a discussion at a meeting of the Cabinet is unnecessary, the case shall be decided without such discussion. If the Ministers are not unanimous and the Chief Minister think that a discussion at a meeting is necessary, the case shall be discussed at a meeting of the Cabinet.

(2) If it is decided to circulate any case to the Ministers who are members of the Cabinet, copies of all papers relating to such cases which are circulated among the Ministers shall simultaneously be sent also to the Governor.

1. Substituted by Notification No: DCA 1 ARB 96, dt. 22.1.96 KGD GSR 10 dt.24.1.96

25. (1) In cases which are circulated for opinion under Rule 24, if any Minister fails to communicate his opinion to the Secretary to the Cabinet by a date to be specified in the Memorandum which shall not be less than seven days from the date of circulation, it shall be assumed that he has accepted the recommendations contained therein.

(2) If the Ministers have accepted the recommendations contained in the Memorandum for circulation or if the date by which they were required to communicate their opinions has expired, the Secretary to the Cabinet shall pass it on to the Secretary concerned who will thereafter take steps to issue the necessary orders.

(3) A copy of the decision taken thereon shall be sent by the Secretary to the Cabinet to the Governor.

26. When it has been decided to bring a case before a meeting of the Cabinet, the memorandum prepared by the Department and such other papers as are necessary to enable the case to be disposed of shall be circulated to the cabinet Ministers. Copies of the Memorandum and other papers shall at the same time be sent to the Governor. For this purpose, the Department concerned shall forward to the Secretary to the Cabinet, a copy of the memorandum and the requisite number of copies of other papers relevant thereto atleast three days before the date appointed for the meeting.

27. (1) The Cabinet shall meet at such place and time as the Chief Minister may direct.

(2) After an agenda paper giving the cases to be discussed at a meeting of the Cabinet has been approved by the Chief Minister, copies thereof together with copies of such Memoranda as have not been already circulated under Rule 26 shall be sent by the Secretary to the Cabinet to the Chief Minister and other Cabinet Ministers so as to reach them two clear days before the date of such meeting. The Chief Minister may in case of emergency, curtail the said period of two days. Copies of the agenda and the Memorandum shall at the same time be sent to the Governor and relevant extracts of the agenda shall be sent to the Secretary of the Administrative Department concerned.

(3) When a case with which a Minister of State not attached to a Cabinet Minister is concerned is included in the agenda of a meeting of the Cabinet, a copy of the Memorandum and the relevant extract of the agenda shall be sent by the Secretary to the Cabinet to such Minister of State at the same time at which the agenda and copies of the Memoranda are sent to the Cabinet Ministers,

(4) Except with the permission of the Chief Minister, no case shall be placed on the agenda of a meeting of the cabinet unless the papers relating thereto have been circulated as required by this Rule or Rule 26.

(5) If any Cabinet Minister is on tour, the agenda paper shall be forwarded to the Secretary in the Department concerned, who, if he considers that the discussion of any case should await the return of the Minister, may request the Secretary to the Cabinet to take the orders of the Chief Minister for a postponement of the discussion of the case until the return of the Minister.

28. (1) The Chief Minister or, in his absence, any other Cabinet Ministers nominated by him, shall preside at a meeting of the Cabinet.

(2) The Secretary to the Cabinet shall attend all the meetings of the Cabinet and shall prepare a record of the decisions. He shall forward a copy of such record to the Governor, the Chief Minister and to each of the Cabinet Ministers, Ministers of State.

(3) The Secretary of the Department concerned with a case shall make himself available for consultation when the case is being discussed at the Cabinet and shall also attend the meeting if he is so directed by the Chief Minister or the Minister presiding.

29. (1) When a case has been decided by the Cabinet the Secretary of the Department shall take action to give effect to the decision.

(2) The decision of the Cabinet relating to each case shall be separately recorded and shall be placed with the record of the case. An extract of the decision shall be sent to the Secretary of the Department concerned for necessary action.

PART - III
DEPARTMENTAL DISPOSAL OF BUSINESS

A. General

30. (1) The Secretary of a Department shall, save as provided in sub-rule (2), submit a case for orders to the Minister-in-charge or to the Minister of State or the Deputy Minister, if any, as the case may be,

(2) Subject to the general or special directions of the Minister-in-charge, routine cases and cases of minor importance, namely, cases covered by rule, decided policy or precedent which do not involve the over-ruling of a Head of a Department and which raise no points of delicacy, may be disposed of by the Secretary of the Department on his own responsibility. The Secretary of the Department may also dispose of in the absence of the Minister-in-charge or the Minister of State or the Deputy Minister cases requiring immediate action, on his own responsibility.

(3) The Minister-in-charge may direct that cases of minor importance may be disposed of by a Deputy Secretary or an Under Secretary of the Department,

(4) A copy of every direction given under sub-rule (3) shall be submitted to the Governor.

(5) Before the second day of every week a compilation of abstract of orders issued during the preceding week, relating to policy decisions and matters of importance shall be prepared and submitted immediately to the Chief Secretary for transmission to the Chief Minister and the Governor.

“Note 1:- Where the case relates to a matter in which a Minister is personally interested, it shall be sent to the Chief Minister who may dispose of it himself or pass it on to any other Minister for disposal.

2:- Where sanction or approval of Government is required for any proposal from any company, society, local body or other institution it shall be examined by the Department concerned in the same manner as a case belonging to such department”.

31. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2) of Rule 5 and Rule 6, the Minister of State attached to a Cabinet Minister or the Deputy Minister may pass orders in cases pertaining to the items of work specified by the Minister-in-charge.

Provided that where a case relates to a matter in which the Minister of State attached to a Cabinet Minister or the Deputy Minister is personally interested, it shall be submitted direct to the Minister-in-charge.

(2) The Minister of State attached to a Cabinet Minister or the Deputy Minister may ask to see papers pertaining to the items of work in which he can pass orders under sub-rule (1).

32. (1) When the subject of the case concerns more than one Department no order shall be issued nor shall the case be laid before the Cabinet until it has been considered by all the Departments concerned unless the case is one of extreme urgency.

(2) The Secretary of the Department shall ensure that all the Departments concerned have been consulted before he submits a case to the Minister-in-charge or Deputy Minister as the case may be for orders.

33. (1) Subject to the Provisions of these Rules, the Minister-in-charge may dispose of all cases arising in Departments under his control.

(2) If more than one Department is concerned with a case and there is a difference of opinion between the Departments, the Minister-in-charge may decide the issue if he is incharge of both the Departments.

(3) If the case concerns more than one Minister and there is a difference of opinion between the Departments the Minister-in-charge shall attempt by previous discussion with the Ministers of other Departments concerned to arrive at an agreement.

(4) If no such agreement is arrived at and the Minister-in-charge wishes to proceed with the case, the case shall be submitted to the Chief Minister for a decision, and the Chief Minister may either decide the case himself or refer the case to the Cabinet.

34. (1) Copies of all communications received from the Government of India (including those from the Prime Minister and other Ministers of the Union), a State Government or the High Court, other than those of a routine or unimportant character, shall, as soon as possible after receipt, be submitted by the Secretary to the Minister-in-charge, the Chief Minister and Governor for information.

(2) The Secretary in the Department concerned shall without delay send, immediately on receipt, copies of communications reporting an occurrence of the nature indicated below to the Chief Minister and to the Minister or Ministers concerned for information.

- 43. (1) After grants have been voted by the Legislative Assembly -
 - (a) the Finance Department shall have power to sanction any re-appropriation within a grant from major, minor or subordinate head to another;

- (b) if any re-appropriation within a grant between heads of subordinate to a minor head is sanctioned by any Department in pursuance of any delegation made by the Finance Department, a copy of every order sanctioning the re-appropriation shall be communicated to the Finance Department as soon as it is passed.
- (2) The Finance Department shall have power -
- (a) to delegate to the High Commissioner for India in the United Kingdom in respect of any grant and subject to any conditions which it may specify in this behalf, the power of re-appropriation conferred by clause(a) of sub-rule (1); and
- (b) to sanction the delegation by a Minister, to any officer or class of officers, of the power of re-appropriation conferred by clause (b) of the said sub-rule.
- (3) Copies of orders sanctioning any re-appropriation which do not require the sanction of the Finance Department, shall be communicated to that Department as soon as such orders are passed.

44. The views of the Finance Department shall be brought on to the permanent record of the Department to which the case belongs and shall form part of the case.

45. The Finance Department may by general or special order prescribe cases in which its assent may be presumed to have been given.

1[“45A. Every proposal for giving a guarantee by the Government upto rupees five crores may be approved by the Finance Minister”]

46. (1) The Finance Minister may call for any papers in cases in which any of the matters referred to in Rules 17 or Rules 41 and 42 are involved and the Department to whom the request is addressed shall supply the papers.

(2) On receipt of papers called for under sub-clause (1), the Finance Minister may request that the papers with his note on them shall be submitted to the Cabinet.

(3) The Finance Department may make rules to govern financial procedure in general in all Departments and to regulate the business of the Finance Department and the dealings of other Departments with the Finance Department.

47. Except as hereinafter provided, the ¹[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] is not, in respect of legislation, an originating or initiating Department, and its proper function is to put into technical shape projects of legislation on which the policy has been approved. Every proposal to initiate legislation shall be considered in, and if necessary transferred to the Department to which the subject matter of the Legislation relates and the necessity for legislation and all matters of substance to be embodied in the Bill shall be discussed and settled in such Department.

48. Proposals to initiate legislation shall be treated as a case and shall be submitted for orders to the Chief Minister through the Minister-in-charge of the Administrative Department and the ¹[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation]:

Provided that the case shall not be so submitted to the Chief Minister until the Department concerned has consulted the ¹[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] as to.

- (i) the need for the proposed legislation from a legal point of view:
- (ii) the competence of the State Legislature to enact the measure proposed:
- (iii) whether the previous sanction of the President is necessary under the Constitution:
- (iv) the consistency of the proposed measure with the provisions of the Constitution and in particular, those relating to Fundamental Rights.

Advice of the ¹[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] on these points should be set out in the Memorandum prepared under Rule 23.

49. If legislation is decided upon, the Department shall draw up a memorandum on the proposal indicating with sufficient precision the lines on which it has been decided to legislate and also a Statement of Objects and Reasons. If the Legislation involves expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State, financial memorandum shall also be prepared in consultation with the Finance Department. The papers shall then be sent to the ¹[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] requesting it to draft the Bill accordingly.

Note :- A separate memorandum need not be prepared in cases where a note for the Cabinet or some other paper already in existence will serve the purpose of a memorandum

50. The ¹[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] shall thereafter prepare a draft bill, scrutinise the Statement of Objects and Reasons and return the case to the Department concerned.

51. The Administrative Department if so directed by the Minister-in-charge, will obtain the opinion of such officers and bodies as it deems necessary for the draft bill and submit the opinions received with a copy of the tentative Draft Bill to the Minister-in-charge.

52. If the tentative Draft Bill is approved by the Minister-in-charge, it shall be sent to the Secretary of the Scrutinising Committee for being placed before the Scrutinising Committee. The tentative Draft Bill as approved by the Scrutinising Committee shall be returned to the Originating Department.

53.(1) The tentative Draft Bill as approved by the Scrutinising Committee shall then be circulated along with the Financial Memorandum, if any, other Ministers and a copy supplied to the Governor and, unless the Chief Minister directs otherwise, the tentative Draft Bill shall be brought before a meeting of the Cabinet. Proposals for any substantial or important amendments in the Draft Bill after its approval shall also be dealt with similarly.

(2)(a) if a Bill which is proposed to be introduced in the Legislature is a Bill,-

- (i) relatable to any of the entries in the concurrent list of the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India; or
- (ii) attracts the provisions of clause (2) of Article 31 or clause (1) of Article 31-A or Article 31-C of the Constitution and has to be submitted to the President for his assent under clause (3) Article 31, the proviso to clause (1) of Article 31-C respectively; or

(iii) on land reforms, the Administrative Department principally concerned shall whenever possible, consult the Ministry of Home Affairs of the Government of India on the proposed legislation after the stage indicated in sub-rule (1).

(b) The Government of India shall be given atleast a fortnight from the date of receipt of the Bill for the examination by the Departments of the Central Government. Where a Bill is referred to the Government of India, the comments of the Government of India shall invariably be awaited before the Bill is introduced in the State Legislature.

(c) The aforesaid procedure need not be followed when the need for action is so urgent that Prior consultation is not possible. In such cases, the Government of India shall be informed of it as soon as possible,

(3) The Administrative Department shall also inform the Government of India about any difficulties encountered in the working of laws falling within the Concurrent legislative field or of laws attracting the provisions of clause (2) of Article 31, clause (1) of Article 31-A and Article 31-C of the Constitution of India or of Laws on land reforms.

(4) In the case of a Bill of the nature referred to in sub-rule (2) introduced by a Private Member in either House of the Legislature, which is likely to go forward copies thereof shall be sent to the Ministry of Home Affairs of the Government of India at a convenient stage after its introduction in the Legislature. If time permits, the Administrative Department shall also inform the Government of India of all amendments to such Bills.

(5) In the case of a Bill requiring the previous sanction of the President under the proviso to clause (b) of Article 304 of the Constitution of India, the Administrative Department principally concerned shall address the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India and such proposals shall be sent at least three weeks before the session of the Legislature is scheduled to meet.

(6) Whenever the Government of India are consulted under sub-rule (2) or addressed under sub-rule (4) or (5), the Administrative Department principally concerned shall send to the Government of India six copies of the letter forwarding the Bill to the Central Government and not less than six copies of the Bill with the Statement of Objects and Reasons and in case, the proposed legislation is an amending Bill, six up to date copies of the principal Act, notes on clauses of the proposed legislation, a comparative statement showing each relevant clause as it exists and as it would read after the proposed amendment and a certificate in the following form, namely:-

2. Six copies of the proposed legislation together with an equal number of copies of the statement of Objects and Reasons for it.
3. The proposed legislation is an amending one. Six up-to-date copies of the Principal Act, note on clauses of the proposed legislation and a comparative statement showing each relevant clause as it exists and as it would read after the proposed amendment are also therefore attached.

 Signature

Note :- *Please give long title of the Legislative proposal.

2.  The certificate should be signed by the officer under whose signature the proposal is sent.

(7) The provisions of sub-rules (2), (5) and (6) shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of Ordinances which require the previous instructions of the President under the proviso to Article 213 (1) of the Constitution. In addition, the Government of India shall be informed of the necessity for the promulgation of the proposed Ordinance, the object sought to be achieved by it and the specific ground on which it is considered necessary to obtain the instructions of the President. The relevant articles of the Constitution which render such instructions necessary shall also be indicated.

54. If it is decided to proceed with the Bill, with or without amendments the originating Department shall send the case to the 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] with necessary instructions requesting that Department to prepare a final draft of the Bill.

55. The 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] shall then finalise the draft if necessary after placing it again before the Scrutinising Committee and send the Draft Bill to the originating Department indicating at the same time, the sanctions, if any, required for the Bill, along with notes on clauses, whenever necessary, covering important clauses of the Bill. If any provisions in the Bill involving expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State are modified in the finalized draft, the Department shall send the finalised draft Bill to the Finance Department for revising, if necessary, the financial memorandum.

56. The originating Department shall then transfer the final draft Bill to the 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] with the instructions of Government thereon including instructions as to its introductions in the Legislative Council or the Legislative Assembly according to the rules thereof and with the copies of such papers connected with the Bill including a copy of the Statement of Objects and Reasons signed by Minister-in-charge as should be communicated to the Legislative Council or the Legislative Assembly. After such transfer the Bill shall be deemed to belong to the 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation.]

57. Notwithstanding anything contained in Rule 47 measures designed solely to codify and to consolidate existing enactments and legislation of a formal character such as repealing and amending Bills may be initiated in the 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation].

Provided that the 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] shall send a copy of the draft Bill prepared to the Department which is concerned with the subject matter for consideration as an administrative measure and the Department to which it is sent shall forthwith make such enquiries as it thinks fit and shall send to the 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] its opinion thereon together with a copy of every communication received by him on the subject.

58. (1) Whenever a private Member of the State Legislature gives notice of his intention to move for leave to introduce a Bill, the 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] on receiving intimation of the fact from the Secretary of the Legislature shall forthwith send a copy of the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons for information to the Chief Minister and to the Department to which the case belongs.

(2) The Bill shall be dealt with as a case by the 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] in the first instance, where it shall be considered in its technical aspects by the 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] such as need for previous sanction of the President and the competence of the State Legislature to enact the measure and then shall be forwarded with its opinion to the Department to which the case belongs.

(3) If any provisions of such Bill involve expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State the Department shall before it is circulated, prepare in consultation with the Finance Department the Financial memorandum in respect of the Bill.

59. The provisions of Rule 58 shall apply as far as may be to amendments of substance recommended by the Select Committee and also to all amendments notice of which is given by Members of the State Legislature for being moved during the consideration of a Bill in that Legislature.

60. 2[“(1) When a Bill has been passed by both the Houses of Legislature, it shall be examined in the Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation and shall be forwarded to the Governor with a report of the Secretary. 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] as to the reasons, if any, why the Governor may declare his assent to the bill or why the Governor shall reserve the Bill for the Consideration of the President of India.”]

(2) Where the Governor directs that the Bill should be reserved for the consideration of the President or returns it to the Legislature with a message necessary action in that behalf shall be taken by the 1[Department of Parliamentary Affairs and Legislation] in consultation with the Administrative Department concerned.

(3) In the case of a Bill attracting the provisions of clause (2) of Article 254 of the Constitution of India, the extent of repugnancy to the existing Central laws on the subject enumerated in the Concurrent List and in cases where the Bill is reserved for the consideration of the President for some other reason the specific ground on which the Bill is reserved for the consideration of the President by quoting specifically the relevant provisions of the Constitution and also whether the said Bill had been sent earlier for the approval of the Central Government prior to its introduction in the State Legislature and if so, which of the suggestions or observations made by the Ministry of Home Affairs in regard to the said Bill have been incorporated with or without modifications as also which of the suggestions or observations have not been carried out with reasons therefor shall be clearly mentioned in the letter addressed to the Government of India for obtaining the assent of the President. Similar action shall be taken in respect of other legislative proposals e.g., when a Bill is sent for replacing an ordinance for which previous instructions of the President had been obtained earlier. E. Land Acquisition

66. All cases relating to acquisition of land under the Land Acquisition Act (hereinafter referred to as the said Act) for any Department of Government shall be dealt within the Revenue Department; but all administrative decisions connected with the acquisition shall be taken in the Administrative Department concerned in the Secretariat, under orders of the Minister-in-charge.

67. The selection of the land to be acquired is purely an administrative decision, and if the records received in the Revenue Department of the Secretariat involve decision at Government Level regarding the selection of the land, the papers should be transferred to the Administrative Department concerned in the Secretariat for obtaining the orders of the Minister-in-charge regarding the selection of the land and returning the papers to the Revenue Department for further action. Correspondence regarding selection of the land will be between the Head of the Department concerned and the Secretariat Department concerned and the Deputy Commissioner would normally be addressed for starting acquisition proceedings only after a final decision regarding the selection of the land is taken. When proposals are received in the Revenue Department for acquisition of lands elected in consultation with the Administrative Department, the Notification under section 4 of the said Act will be issued by the Revenue Department without any further consultation with the Administrative Department of the Secretariat.

68. Where, however, the final selection of land to be acquired is still in dispute and there is no final decision at the Level of Government or where it is proposed to modify the acquisition proposals in the light of the objections preferred before the issue of Preliminary Notification such cases shall be transferred by the Revenue Department to the Administrative Department concerned in the Secretariat for obtaining orders of the Minister-in-charge regarding final selection of the lands. On the basis of such decision conveyed by the Administrative Department concerned in the Secretariat, further action to issue Preliminary Notification in accordance with such decision will be taken by the Revenue Department.

69. Where acquisition is resorted to under the normal procedure, a report under Section 5-A of the said Act will have to be considered by Government before issue of declarations under Section 6 of the said Act. At this stage the Administrative Department of Secretariat will be consulted before sanctioning acquisition of lands in the following classes of cases even though no objections have been preferred to the proposed acquisition:

- (i) the schemes for which land is being acquired have not received sanction from the competent authority; or
- (ii) the funds required for meeting the cost of acquisition have neither been deposited nor made available for payment from out of allotment included in the budget; or
- (iii) it appears from subsequent reports that the cost of acquisition is likely to be substantially more than the originally estimated cost, although provision for the additional expenditure may have been made.

70. Where objections are received in response to Preliminary Notification and the Revenue Department after consideration of such objections feels that acquisition should be proceeded with inspite of the objections raised, further action may be taken by the Revenue Department itself without consulting the acquiring Department except in cases of extraordinary importance and complexity.

71. Where the report under section 5-A of the said Act recommends to drop the acquisition or modify the proposals in view of the objections filed, the papers will be transferred to the Administrative Department concerned in the Secretariat for obtaining final orders of the Minister-in-charge of the Department on the proposals contained in the report.

72. Where the Revenue Department proposes to effect any modification in the proposals approved by the Department sponsoring acquisition, either at the stage of consideration of the report under section 5-A of the said Act or in proceedings initiated on an application under section 15-A of the said Act, the papers will be transferred to the Administrative Department concerned in the Secretariat for obtaining final orders of the Minister-in-charge and returning the papers to the Revenue Department for further action in accordance with such decision.

F. Stores Purchase

72-A. ¹[X X]

²[G. Department of Public Enterprises]

72 - B. All Administrative Departments shall consult the ²[Department of Public Enterprises] on any proposal specified in item 16 of the First Schedule before soliciting approval of the Cabinet.

PART-IV

MISCELLANEOUS

(2) Such request shall be dealt with under the general or special orders of the Minister-in-charge.

(3) The Chief Secretary may ask to see papers relating to any case in any Department or with any Special Secretary to Government and any such request by him shall be complied with by the Secretary of the Department concerned or the Special Secretary as the case may be.

(4) Subject to the provisions of Rule 15, a Minister may send for any paper from any Department provided that, if he is of opinion that any further action should be taken on them, he shall communicate his views to the Minister-in-charge of the Department concerned and in case of disagreement, may submit the case to the Chief Minister with a request that the matter be laid before the Cabinet. No further notes shall be recorded in the case before the papers are so laid before the Cabinet:

1. Omitted in Notification No: DCA 6 ARB 2006, dt. 29.8.2006 KGD Ex. 31.8.2006

2. Substituted by Notification No: DCA 3 ARB 2006, dt. 05.09.2006

Provided that if the paper is of a secret nature, it shall be sent to the Minister only under the orders of the Minister-in-charge of the Department to which it belongs:

Provided further that no paper under disposal shall be sent to any Minister until it has been seen by the Minister-in-charge of the Department to which it belongs.

Note.- (i) Private Secretaries to Ministers shall not requisition files of Secretariat Departments other than their own in respect of the Departments under the control of their Ministers they shall not requisition files of a confidential nature.

(ii) When a Minister requires a file belonging to another Secretariat Department he may send a requisition either to the Minister or to the Secretary concerned. If the requisition is made to a Secretary, he should submit the files together with the requisition to the Minister-in-charge of the portfolio for orders.

(iii) Notes or Minutes made by a Minister on a file which does not belong to the Department under his control, should be made on a separate sheet of paper and may be attached to the correspondence file and can be referred to wherever necessary in the note file.

74. Whenever it may be found necessary to make communications to high officers of Government e.g., Divisional Commissioners, Heads of Departments, Deputy Commissioners etc., conveying or implying the dissatisfaction of Government in any degree or indicating how they might more satisfactorily discharge the duties of their office, such communications shall be made in the form of confidential letters and memoranda to be signed by the Chief Secretary, and the drafts of such communication shall be submitted to the Minister-in-charge and the Chief Minister for approval.

75. (1) When a question is asked by a Member of the Legislative Assembly or of the Legislative Council, the Secretary of the Legislature will send two copies of the same to the Deputy Secretary to Government in the concerned Department without waiting for the orders of the Speaker, Chairman regarding its admission.

The Secretary of that Department shall prepare replies and notes for supplementaries and the Minister-in-charge of the Department shall answer the question in the House.

(2) If, however, it is felt that the question does not relate to that Department, the Secretary of the Department shall settle the question after discussion with the Secretary of the Department to whom he feels the question should go. In case no decision is arrived at by this discussion, the Secretary shall refer the matter to the Chief Secretary, whose decision shall be final. When a question is thus transferred, the case papers connected with the question shall be sent direct to the Department which it is decided should handle the question, and only an intimation in a routine note of such transfer should be sent to the Secretary. Legislature.

(3) When a question is of a composite nature, that is where it concerns the portfolio of more than one Minister, the Secretary, Legislature shall transmit the same to the Secretariat Department mainly concerned with it depending on the nature of the question. The Secretariat Department which so receives the question shall deal with it after collecting particulars from the other Secretariat Departments concerned and prepare draft replies. In cases where it is difficult to decide the Department which should deal with such questions, the decision of the Chief Secretary shall be sought and that decision shall be final. It shall be the responsibility of that Department to deal with such questions after collecting material from the other Secretariat Departments concerned and prepare draft replies and the note for supplementaries. The Minister-in-charge of the Department to which composite questions are sent will formally be in charge of the questions and the Department shall send replies to the Legislature Secretariat.

(4) As soon as the Speaker / Chairman Passes orders admitting the question in its original form or in an amended form, the Legislature Secretariat will forward copies thereof in duplicate to the Deputy Secretary of the concerned Department.

(5) The draft reply and note for supplementaries prepared by the Department shall be amended wherever necessary in accordance with the amended question by consulting the other Departments of the Secretariat if found necessary. Answers to the questions and the note for answering supplementary questions shall be on separate sheets of paper.

(6) Complete copies of composite questions with copies of replies and notes for answering supplementary questions shall be sent to all the Departments concerned and to the Ministers for information. Any supplementary questions on such questions relating to other Departments shall be answered by the Ministers concerned if found necessary.

76.(1) The Secretary in a Department is a Secretary to the Government. It is his duty to see that the policy of the Government in the Department with which he is concerned is carried out. It is his duty to place before the Minister all relevant facts relating to a case accurately and to tender the necessary advice either in a written note or orally at any time before the Minister passes final orders on a case. It shall also be the duty of the Secretary to draw the attention of the Minister to the fact that any proposed course of action is contrary to the provisions of any rule or law or is at variance with the policy hitherto adopted by Government.

(2) The Secretary may with the approval of the Minister-in-charge delegate such powers to the Additional Secretary, Joint Secretaries, Deputy Secretaries and Under Secretaries working under him as he considers necessary, subject to compliance with the provisions of these rules.

77. If any doubt arises as to the interpretation of these rules, it shall be referred to the Chief Minister, whose decision shall be final.

78. The Chief Secretary and the Secretary of the Department concerned are severally responsible for the proper transaction of business and for the careful observance of these Rules and when either of them considers that there has been any material departure from them, he shall personally bring it to the notice of the Chief Minister through the Minister-in-charge, as the case may be.
